

Notice of Privacy Practices: Fort Bend Injury Clinic, PLLC

Effective Date: August 1, 2025

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Our Responsibilities

We are required by law to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information.
- Provide you with this Notice of Privacy Practices.
- Abide by the terms of this notice.
- Notify you if there is a breach of your unsecured health information.

How We May Use and Disclose Your Health Information

We may use or share your health information for:

- Treatment – To provide, coordinate, or manage your care (for example, sharing information with another healthcare provider).
- Payment – To bill and collect payment for services (for example, submitting information to your insurance company).
- Healthcare Operations – For activities necessary to run our practice (for example, quality improvement, staff training, accreditation).

We may also use or share information when required by law, such as:

- Public health reporting
- Reporting abuse or neglect
- Responding to court orders or subpoenas
- To law enforcement when legally required

Other Uses and Disclosures

We will not use or disclose your information for marketing, sale of information, or fundraising without your written permission. If you provide authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Access – See or get a copy of your health records.
- Confidential Communications – Ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, at work instead of home).
- Restrictions – Request limits on how we use or share your information.
- Accounting of Disclosures – Ask for a list of times we shared your information (other than for treatment, payment, or healthcare operations).
- Receive a Paper Copy – Request a paper copy of this notice at any time.
